HAPPY FATHERS DAY to all of our Fathers of our parish and community. May God grant you many healthy happy years together with your family!
MNOHAYA LITA!

FIRST SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST (Sunday Of All Saints)

Troparion and Kontakion:

Troparion (8): You came down from on high, O Merciful One, and accepted three days of burial to free us from our sufferings. O Lord, our life and our resurrection, glory be to You.

Troparion (4): Your Church throughout the world, O Lord, is clothed with the blood of Your martyrs as with fine linens and purple robes; and so the Church cries out to You, O Christ our God: Send down Your goodness upon Your people; grant peace to Your Church and great mercy to our souls.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. Now and for ever and ever: Amen.

Kontakion (8): To You, O Lord, Author of all creation; the universe offers the God-bearing martyrs as the first-fruit of nature. Through their prayers and the intercession of the Mother of God preserve Your Church, Your dwelling place, in perfect peace. O most merciful One.

Prokimenon: Make vows to the Lord, your God, and fulfill them Verse: God is made known in Judah; in Israel His name is great.

Epistle: Reading of the Epistle of St. Paul to the Hebrews (Heb 11,33-40;12,1-2) Brethren: All saints, who by faith conquered kingdoms, did what was righteous, obtained the promises; they closed the mouths of lions, put out raging fires, escaped the devouring sword; out of weakness they were made powerful, became strong in battle, and turned back foreign invaders. Women received back their dead through resurrection. Some were tortured and would not accept deliverance, in order to obtain a better resurrection. Others endured mockery, scourging, even chains and imprisonment. They were stoned, sawed in two, put to death at sword's point; they went about in skins of sheep or goats, needy, afflicted, tormented. The world was not worthy of them. They wandered about in deserts and on mountains, in caves and in crevices in the earth. Yet all these, though approved because of the faith, did not receive what had been promised. God had foreseen something better for us, so that without us they should not be made perfect. Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us rid ourselves of every burden and sin that clings to us and persevere in running the race that lies before us while keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus, the leader and perfecter of faith. For the sake of the joy that lay before him he endured the cross, despising its shame, and has taken his seat at the right of the throne of God.

Alleluia Verses:

Verse: The Just call and the Lord hears and rescues them in all their distress..

Verse: Many are the trials of the just man, but from them all the Lord will rescue him.

Gospel: (Mt 10,32-33,37-38;19,27-30) The Lord said to his disciples: "Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge [him] before my heavenly Father. But whoever denies me before others, I will deny before my heavenly Father. Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me." Then Peter said to him in reply, "We have given up everything and followed you. What will there be for us?" Jesus said to them, "Amen, I say to you that you who have followed me, in the new age, when the Son of Man is seated on his throne of glory, will yourselves sit on the twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And everyone who has given up houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or lands for the sake of my name will receive a hundred times more, and will inherit eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first."

Communion Verse: Praise the Lord from the heavens. Praise Him in the highest. Exult, you just, in the Lord: praise from the upright is fitting. Alleluia,

In Loving Memory

When tomorrow starts without me and I'm not here to see... If the sun should rise and find your eyes filled with tears for me, I wish so much you wouldn't cry, The way you did today... While thinking of the many things We didn't get to say, I know how much you love me, As much as I love you... And each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me, too. But when tomorrow starts without me, Please try to understand... That Jesus came and called my name And took me by the hand. And said my place was ready in heaven far above... And that I'd have to leave behind All those I dearly love. So when tomorrow starts without me, Don't think we're far apart... For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.

Their Death is More like Dreaming

We ought to honor the saints. They are Christ's friends, children and heirs of God. This is the teaching of the theologian and evangelist John: "To all who received him ... the Word gave power to become children of God" (John 1:12). The Creator of all things is called in Scripture Lord of lords, King of kings, God of gods. The saints are precisely lords, kings and gods, not in their own nature but because they have become lords over themselves, they have ruled their passions, they have kept intact that image of God in which they were created. Indeed, the saints of their own choice are united to God, they have welcomed Him as a guest in their hearts, and by sharing with Him have become what He is by nature.

They have become God's servants, friends and children. The honor given to His faithful servants of which they are the witness is a test of our love for our Lord and theirs. He has found in them a spotless dwelling place and has performed his promise: "I will make my abode among you ... and I will walk among you and will be your God" (Lev. 26:11-12).

It is of the saints that Scripture says: "The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God and the torment of death shall not touch them" (Wisd. 3:1). In fact, their death is more like dreaming than dying. God is life and light, and those who are in the hand of God are themselves life and light. By means of the Spirit, God is dwelling in the bodies of the saints. Why then should we not honor the temple of the living God?

St. John of Damascus
