FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST Feast Of All The Saints Of Rus-Ukraine
Troparion (3): Let the heavens be glad, let the earth rejoice, for the Lord has done a mighty deed with His arm. He trampled death by death; He became the firstborn of the dead; He saved us from the abyss of Hades and granted great mercy to the world.

Troparion (4): O Princes and bishops glorified in Christ, you monastics and martyrs, and you staunch confessors from every age of Christian Ukraine, pray to Christ our God, that He gaze with a merciful eye on our nation and grant it the grace to endure in faith, and that the souls of its devout faithful, who honor your sacred memory, may be saved.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. Now and for ever and ever: Amen.

Kontakion (4): You shine with bright lights, O divinely inspired righteous ones of our church, and by your encouraging example, you serve the communities of the faithful throughout the Christian world. Therefore, in humility we bow our heads before you, as we thank the great and all gracious God, Who made you our mediators in heaven and the intercessors for our souls.

Prokimenon (3): Sing to our God, sing; sing to our King, sing. Verse: Clap your hands, all you nations; shout unto God with the voice of joy. Prokimenon (3): Sing to our God, sing; sing to our King, sing.

Nowhere in Israel Have I Found as Much Faith

The Lord Jesus agreed to go to the centurion's house to cure his servant, but he replied: I am not worthy to have you under my roof; only say the word and my servant will be healed. In protesting his unworthiness the centurion showed himself worthy to have Christ enter not his house but his heart. Yet he could not have said this with such faith and humility unless he already bore within his heart the One he was too overawed to have within his house. In any case, there would have been no great happiness at the entry of the Lord Jesus within his walls if he were not present in his heart.

But what emboldened the centurion to act as he did? I am under authority myself, he said, and have soldiers under me; and I say to one man, Go, and he goes; to another, Come here, and he comes; to my servant, Do this, and he does it.

Now the man who said this was a Gentile as well as a centurion. He was a professional soldier and, as a centurion, acted according to his rank: subject to authority and exercise in authority, obeying as a subordinate and giving orders to those subordinate to him. As for the Lord, though living among the Jewish people, He was already beginning to make it known that His Church would extend throughout the whole world into which He was about to send His apostles. Although the Gentiles would not see him they would believe in him, whereas the Jewish leaders who saw him would put him to death.
